Nightcaps is presented by Amherst Glebe Arts Response and Second Stage | Amherst.

Amherst Glebe Arts Response, Inc. (AGAR) arts and Humanities Projects in 2022-2023 are funded as follows:

AGAR's concerts are made possible by the National Endowment for the Arts, the Virginia Commission for the Arts, and The Greater Lynchburg Community Foundation, with marketing assistance from SHARE Greater Lynchburg. The Louis Moreau Gottschalk project is supported in part by the Virginia Commission for the Arts, which receives support from the Virginia General Assembly and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency. AGAR's arts programs for individuals receiving meals delivered at home are also funded in part by Amherst Woman's Club. The performances of Grant Gordy Duo and Cecilia Smith Ensemble, presented in collaboration with Gifts of Art, Michigan Medicine and VCU Health/Arts in Healthcare are supported by Chamber Music America's Presenter Consortium for Jazz (PCJ) program, funded through the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation. AGAR's concerts through PCJ are delivered online as a "thank you" during the COVID-19 times to medical and non-medical staff and to patients at Centra Health, Central Virginia Alliance for Community Living, area nursing facilities, and UVA Health. AGAR's Virginia History Programs are supported in part by the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) and Virginia Humanities (VH). Funding for a VH/SHARP grant to AGAR has been provided by Virginia Humanities and the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) as part of the American Rescue Plan (ARP) and the NEH Sustaining the Humanities through the American Rescue Plan (SHARP) initiative.
